The Preface.

WE be taught by many and sundry examples of holy Scriptures, that upon occasion of particular punishments, afflictions and perils, which God of his most just judgement hath sometimes sent among his people, to shew his wrath against sin, and to call them to repentance, and to the redress of their lives, all men ought to be provoked and stirred up to more fervency and diligence in prayer, fasting and almes-deeds, to a more deep consideration of their consciences, to ponder their unthankfulness and forgetfulness of Gods merciful benefits towards them, with craving of pardon for the time past, & to ask his assistance for the time to come, to live more godly, and so to be defended and delivered from all further perils and dangers. So king David in the time of plague and pestilence which ensued upon his vain numbering of the people, prayed unto God with wonderful fervency, confessing his fault, desiring God to spare the people, and rather to turn his ire to him-ward, who had chiefly offended in that transgression. The like was done by the vertuous kings, Josaphat and Eze- chias, in their distress of wars and foreign invasions.
 So did the king and people of Ninive, and Hester, fall to humble prayers in like perils of their people. So did Daniel in his captivity, and many other moe in their troubles. Now therefore calling to minde, that God hath hath been provoked lately to visit us with a plague of rain and waters, whence we cannot but fear scarcity and famine, sicknesses and diseases, unless prevented by his infinite mercy and goodness: It is thought meet to excite and stir up all godly people within this Realm, to pray earnestly and heartily to God to forgive us our sins, and consequently to turn away his deserved wrath from us, and to restore us to his gracious favour, by continuing a blessed change of weather, for which also we are now to give thanks unto his holy Name. And likewise we are to beg a blessing upon the high Court of Parliament now assembled, that he would direct all their counsels and endeavours to his own glory, and the honour and prosperity both of King and People. And although it is every Christians duty, of his own devotion to pray at all times: yet for that the corrupt nature of man is so slothful and negligent herein, he hath need by often and sundry means to be stirred up and put in remembrance of his duty: For the effectual accomplishment whereof, it is thought meet that this order of Prayer following should at this time be published, being such as shall be used by the Minister in the Church, and may by every man in his private family.

The

The order for Morning Prayer.

¶ Let the Minister beginning Service, read with a loud voice one of these sentences of Scripture.

Joel 2.

Ent your hearts and not your garments, and turn to the Lord your God, because he is gentle and merciful, he is patient, and of much mercy, and such a one that is sorry for your afflictions.

To thee (O Lord God) belongeth mercy and forgiveness, for we have gone away from thee, and have not hearkened to thy voice, whereby we might walke in thy Lawes which thou hast appointed for us.

Dan. 9.

Correct us (O Lord) and yet in thy Judgment, not in thy fury, lest we should be consumed, and brought to nothing.

Jer. 10.

Early beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sinnes and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sinnes before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for

A Form of Prayer.

for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to let forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to aske those things which be requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul: Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as be here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voyce, unto the Throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me,

¶ A general confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, kneeling.

Almighty and most merciful Father, We have erred and strayed from thy waies like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, Wee have offended against thy holy lawes, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults; Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord; and grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution or remission of sinnes to be pronounced by the Priest alone.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live, and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission remission of their finnes: he pardoneth and absolveth all them which truly repent, and unfeignedly beleve his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, is that at the last we may come to his eternall joy through Iesus Christ our Lord.

A Form of Prayer.

The people shall answer, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer with a loude voice.

O Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evill: for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say.

O Lord open thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest.

O God make speed to save us.

Answer.

O Lord make haste to helpe us.

Priest.

Glorv be to the Father, and to the Sonne, and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

Praise ye the Lord.

A Form of Prayer.

Then shall be said or sung this Hymn following, instead of Venite Exultemus; whereof one Verse is to be said of the Minister, and another by the People or Clerk.

Come, let us humble our selves, Psal. 95.
and fall down before the Lord,
with reverence and fear.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his Pasture, and the sheep of his Hands.

Let us repent, and turn from Acts 3.
our wickedness: and our sins shall be forgiven us.

For we knowledg our faults: and our sins be ever before Psal. 51.
us.

wrath is kindled hot, and thy heavy displeasure is kindled against us.

But there is mercy with thee, that thou mayest be feared:
and thou art full of compassion.

For thy hand is not shortned, that thou canst not help: neither is thy goodness abated, that thou wilt not hear.

Thou hast promised, O Lord, that afore we cry thou wilt Isai. 65.
hear us: whilst we yet speak thou wilt have mercy upon
us.

For none that trust in thee shall be confounded:
neither any that call upon thee shall be despised.

Our Fathers hoped in thee, they trusted in thee, and thou Psal. 22.
didst deliver them.

A Form of Prayer.

They called upon thee, and were helped: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

Psal. 6. O Lord, rebuke not us in thine indignation: neither chasten us in thy heavy displeasure.

Psal. 23. I remember not the sins and offences of our youth: but according to thy mercy think thou upon us, O Lord, for thy goodness.

Dan. 9. For thine own sake, and for thy holy Names sake, incline thine ear, and hear, O merciful Lord.

For we do not pour out our prayers before thy face, trusting in our own righteousness: but in thy great and manifold mercies.

Psal. 31. Wash us thoroughly from our wickedness: and cleanse us from our sins.

Turn thy face from our sins, and put out all our misdoings.

Make us clean hearts, O God: and renew a right spirit within us.

Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name: O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins for thy Names sake.

So we that be thy People, and sheep of thy Pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever, and will always be shewing forth thy praise, from generation to generation.

Psal. 29.

Glorify be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Beati quorum. Psalm 32.

Blessed is he whose unrighteousness is forgiven, and whose sin is covered.

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth no sin: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

For while I held my tongue: my bones consumed away through my daily complaining.

For

A Form of Prayer.

For thy hand is heavy upon me day and night:
and my moisture is like the drought in summer.
I will knowlege my sin unto thee: and mine unrighteousness have I not hid.

I said, I will, confesse my sins unto the Lord:
and so thou forgavest the wickedness of my sin.

For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou mayest be found: but in the great water-floods they shall not come nigh him.

Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

I will inform thee, and teach thee in the way wherein thou shalt go: and I will guide thee with mine eye.

Be ye not like to horse and mule which have no understanding: whose mouths must be holden with bit and bridle, lest they fall upon thee.

Great plagues remain for the ungodly: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord, mercy embraceth him on every side.

Be glad, O ye righteous, and rejoyce in the Lord: and be joyfull all ye that are true of heart.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Domine, refugium. Psal. 90.

LORD, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

Thou turnest man to destruction: again thou sayest, Come again ye children of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight, are but as yesterday

A Form of Prayer.

yesterday : seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

As soon as thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep : and fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green, and groweth up : but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

For we consume away in thy displeasure, and are afraid at thy wrathful indignation.

Thou hast set our misdeeds before thee : and our secret sins in the sight of thy countenance.

For when thou art angry, all our days are gone : we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years : yet is their strength then but labor and sorrow, so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

But who regardeth the power of thy wrath : for even thereafter as a man feareth, so is thy displeasure.

O teach us to number our days : that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

Turn thee again (O Lord) at the last : and be gracious unto thy servants.

O satisfie us with thy mercy, and that soon : so shall we rejoyce and be glad all the days of our life.

Comfort us again now after the time that thou hast plagued us : and for the years wherein we have suffered adversity.

Show thy servants thy work : and their children thy glory.

And the glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us : prosper thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper thou our handy work.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Confitemini Domino, Psal. 107.

O Give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed: and delivered from the hand of the enemy.

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west: from the north, and from the south.

They went astray in the wilderness out of the way: and found no city to dwell in.

Hungry and thirsty: their soul fainted in them:

So they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: and he delivered them from their distress.

He led them forth by the right way: that they might go to the city where they dwell.

That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

For he satisfieth the empty soul: and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death: being cast bound in misery and from

Because they rebelled against the word of the Lord: and lightly regard the counsel of the most High.

He also brought down their heart through heaviness: they fell down, and there was none to help them up.

So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble: he delivered them out of their distress.

For he brought them out of darkness, and out of the shadow of death: and brake their bonds in sunder.

A Form of Prayer.

¶ That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men !

For he hath broken the gates of brass : and smitten the bars of iron in sunder.

Foolish men are plagued for their offence : and because of their wickedness.

Their soul abhorred all manner of meat : and they were even hard at death's doore.

So when they cried unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivered them out of their distress.

He sent his word and healed them : and they were saved from their destruction.

¶ That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men !

That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of thanksgiving : and tell out his works with gladness !

They that go down to the sea in ships : and occupy their business in great waters.

These men see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

For at his word the stormy winde ariseth : which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep : their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man : and are at their wits end.

So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble : he delivereth them out of their distress.

For he maketh the storm to cease : so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad, because they be at rest : and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

A Form of Prayer.

That men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness : and declare the wonders that he doth for the children of men !

That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people : and praise him in the seat of the elders !

Which turneth the floods into a wilderness : and drieth up the water-springs.

A fruitful land maketh he barren : for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

Again, he maketh the wilderness a standing water : and water-springs of a dry ground.

And there he setteth the hungry : that they may build them a City to dwell in.

That they may sow their land , and plant vineyards : to yield them fruits of increase.

He blesteth them , so that they multiply exceedingly : and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

And again, when they are diminished and brought low : through oppression, through any plague or trouble.

Though he suffer them to be evil entreated through tyrants : and let them wander out of the way in the wilderness.

Yet helpeth he the poor out of misery : and maketh him households like a flock of sheep.

The righteous will consider this, and rejoyce : and the mouth of all wickedness shall be stopped.

Whoso is wise will ponder these things : and they shall understand the loving kindness of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

The Psalms ended, The First Lesson appointed to be read is Genesis the Eighth.

AND God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattel that was with him in the ark: and God made a winde to passe over the earth, and the waters asswaged. The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained. And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty dayes the waters were abated. And the ark rested in the seventh moneth, on the seventeenth day of the moneth, upon the mountains of Ararat. And the waters decreased continually untill the tenth moneth: in the tenth moneth, on the first day of the moneth, were the tops of the mountains seen. And it came to passe at the end of forty dayes, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made. And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, untill the waters were dried up from off the earth. Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground. But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark. And he stayed yet other seven dayes: and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark. And the dove came in to him in the evening, and lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth. And he stayed yet other seven dayes, and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him any more more. And it came to passe in the six hundredth and first year, in the first moneth, the first day of the moneth, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry. And in the second moneth, on the seven and twentieth day of the moneth was the earth dried. And God spake unto Noah, saying; Go forth of the ark, thou and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons wives with thee. Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattel, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful and multiply upon the earth. And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons wives with him: Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth after their kindes, went forth out of the ark. And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the Lord smelled a sweet savour, and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for mans sake; for the imagination of mans heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every thing living as I have done. While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold, and heat, and summer, and winter, and day, and night shall not cease.

After the first Lesson shall follow Te Deum Laudamus in English.

O Lord let thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in thee.

For the second Lesson, the One and twentieth Chapter of St. Luke.

AND he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. And he saw also a certain pooꝝ widow casting in thither two mites. And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this pooꝝ widow hath cast in more then they all. For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God, but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had. And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones, and gifts, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. But when ye shall hear of Wars, and commotions, be not terrified:

for these things must first come to pass, but the end is not yet and by. Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences, and fearful sights, and great signs shall there be from heaven. But before all these they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my names sake. And it shall turn to you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before, what ye shall answer. For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gain-say, nor resist. And ye shall be betrayed, both by parents, and brethren, and kins-folks, and friends, and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake. But there shall not an hair of your head perish: In your patience possess ye your souls: And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judea, flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it, depart out, and let not them that are in the countreys, enter therein. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written, may be fulfilled. But wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days, for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations, and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring, Mens hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh. And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees, When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves, that Summer is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. And take heed to your selves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man. And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

To performe the oath which he sware to our forefather Abraham : that he would give us.

That we being delivered out of the hands of our

In holiness and righteousness before him : all the dayes of our life.

And thou Childe shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt goe before the face of the Lord to prepare his wayes.

To give knowledge of salvation unto his peo-

Through the tender mercy of our God : whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us.

To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feete

the people standing.

heaven and earth. And in Iesus Christ his only Son our Lord, which was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried, he descended into hell, the third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty : from thence he shal come to iudge the quick and the dead.

The first Collect.

O Eternal God, and most gracious Father, who
by the late immoderate Rain and Cleather, hast caused us to fear that scarcity and famine, sicknesses and diseases may ensue, and justly fall upon us for our iniquities. We humbly here confesse, there can fall nothing so heaby upon us, but we have deserved, even whatsoever thy Law hath threatned against perverbe and obstinate sinners.
Our contempt of thy Divine Service is great, and we hear thy Word, but obey it not: Our charity to our neighbor is cold, and our devotion to thee is frozen: Religion is by many of us made but a pretence for other ends then thy Service; and there hath been little or no care among us to keep Truth and Peace together, for the preserving of our Church and State. Forgive us, O Lord, forgive us these and all other our grievous and heinous sins, and grant us a true and hearty sorrow and

and repentance for them all. Send us henceforward light in our understandings, readiness and obedience in our wills, discretion in our words and actions, true, serious and loyal endeavors for the Peace and Prosperity of Jerusalem, the Unity and Glory of this Church and State; that so we may love it, and prosper in it, enjoy the blessings both of Heaven and Earth upon it, live in thy grace and favor here, and be filled with thy glory in the life to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most gracious God, who in the multitude of those fears which were upon us by reason of the late immoderate Rain and Showers, wast pleased at last to clear up the Heavens, and give us hopes of plenty yet to crown the Earth, we bless and praise thy glorious Name, humbly acknowledging, that as our sins most justly deserved thy wrath and indignation to be poured out upon us, and for our sakes upon the Earth, not onely in dearth and scarcity, but all other calamities; so it is thy mercy onely, and not our deservings, that thou hast thus again comforted and refreshed us. For which we humbly yield thee all thanks and glory; beseeching thee, that by our transgressions we may not anew enkindle thy displeasure, to dash our hopes in pieces, and recal thy mercies from us. Grant this, O merciful Father, for Jesus Christ his sake, our onely Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Collect for Peace.

The Epistle is taken out of the second Chapter, of the Prophecie of the Prophet Ierl, beginning at the twelfth Verse.

Therefore also now, saith the Lord, Turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning. And rent your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat-offering, and a drink-offering unto the Lord your God? Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctifie a fast, call a solemn assembly. Gather the people: sanctifie the congregation: assemble the elders: gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the Priests the Ministers of the Lord weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Then will the Lord be jealous for his land, and pity his people. Yea, the Lord will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith, and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen. But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part towards the utmost sea; and his sink shall come up, and his ill labor shall come up, because he hath done great things. Fear not, O Land, be glad, and rejoice; for the Lord will do great things. Be not afraid, afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength. Be glad then ye children of Zion, and rejoyce in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first moneth. And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm and the caterpillar, and the paimer-worm, my great army which I sent among you. And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wonderfully with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

The Gospel is taken out of the 13. of St. Luke, beginning at the 1. Verse.

There were present at that season, some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Sate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay; but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Of those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. He spake also this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. He suffered, and was buried, and the third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: whose kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who speaketh by the Prophets. A generall confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, kneeling.

Almighty and most mercifull Father, Wee have erred and strayed from thy wates like lost sheepe, Wee have followed too much the de-villes and desires our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy Lawes, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done;
And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, and there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults; Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankinde in Christ Iesu our Lord; And grant, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

ner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and iniquity, and with other power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the ablution and remission of their sins: he pardoneth and absolveth all them which truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, that at the last we may come to his eternal joy. Amen.
Jesus, Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer, Amen.

Then shall the Minister begin the Lords Prayer with a loud voice.

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then likewise he shall say.

Lord, open thou our eyes, that we may see thy face.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise, O Lord.

Priest.

God make speed to save us.

Answer.

Lord make haste to help us.

Priest.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever

Praise ye the Lord.

Te decet hymnus. Psal. 65.

Thou O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Ierusalem.

Thou that hearest the prayer: unto thee shall all flesh come.

By misdeeds prevaile against me: Oh be thou merciful unto our sins.

Blessed is the man whom thou chocest and receivest unto thee: he shall dwell in thy court, and shall be satisfied with the pleasures of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

Thou shalt shew us wonderful things in thy righteousness, O God of our salvation: thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

Which in his strength setteth fast the mountains: and is girded about with power.

Which stilleth the raging of the sea: and the noise of his waves, and the madness of his people.

They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth, shall be afraid at thy tokens: thou that makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to praise thee.

Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it: thou makest it very plenteous.

The river of God is full of water: thou preparest their corn, for so thou providest for the earth.

Thou waterest her furrows, thou sendest rain into the little valleys thereof: thou makest it soft with the drops of rain, and blessest the increase of it.

A Form of Prayer.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness :
and thy clouds drop fatness.

They shall drop upon the dwellings of the wilderness : and the little hills shall rejoyce on every side.

The folds shall be full of sheep : the vallies also shall stand so thick with corn, that they shall laugh and sing.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 147.

O Praise the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God : yea, a joyfull and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem : and gather together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth those that are broken in heart : and giveth medicine to heal their sickness.

He telleth the number of the stars : and calleth them all by their names.

Great is our Lord, and great is his power : yea, and his wisdom is infinite.

The Lord setteth up the meek : and bringeth the ungodly down to the ground.

I sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving : sing praises upon the harp unto our God.

Which covereth the heaven with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth : and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.

Which giveth fodder unto the cattel : and feedeth the young ravens that call upon him.

He hath no pleasure in the strength of an horse : neither delighteth he in any mans legs.

But the Lords delight is in them that fear him : and put their trust in his mercy.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem : praise thy God, O
Sion,

A Form of Prayer.

For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates : and hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders : and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth : and his word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool : and scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels : who is able to abide his frost ?

He sendeth out his Word, and melteth them : he bloweth with his wind, and the waters flow.

He sheweth his word unto Jacob : his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation : neither have the heathen knowledge of his Laws.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. 148.

O Praise the Lord of heaven : praise him in the height.

Praise him all ye angels of his : praise him all his host.

Praise him sun and moon : praise him all ye stars and light.

Praise him all ye heavens : and ye waters that be above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord : for he spake the word, and they were made ; he commanded, and they were created.

He hath made them fast for ever and ever : he hath given them a law which shall not be broken.

Praise the Lord upon earth : ye Dragons and all deeps :

Fire and hail, snow and vapors : wind and storm, fulfilling his word.

Hills and all hills : fruitful trees, and all cedars.

Beasts

A Form of Prayer.

Beasts and all cattel: worms and feathered fowls.

Kings of the earth, and all people: Princes, and all Judges of the world.

Young men and maidens, old men and children, praise the name of the Lord: for his name onely is excellent, and his praise above heaven and earth.

He shall exalt the horn of his people, all his saints shall praise him: even the children of Israel, even the people that serveth him.

For the First Lesson read the Ninth Chapter of Genesis.

Magnificat. Luke 1.

My soul doth magnifie the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoyced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham, and his seed forever.

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

A Form of Prayer.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

That thy way may be known upon earth : thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God : yea, let all the people praise thee.

Let the nations rejoyce and be glad : for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God : let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase : and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us : and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Almighty and most mercifull Father, who for our many and grievous sins mightest most justly have continued those immoderate raines with which thou dost afflict us, and thereby bring upon us both plagues and sickness, death and famine, but in the multitude of thy mercies hast given us better hopes. Accept we most humbly be-leech thee our unfeigned sorrow for all our former transgressions, and grant that wee may never so hereafter presume of thy mercy as to despise thy Judgements, but that thy forbearance and long suffering may lead us to repentance, and amendment of our sinfull lives, to thy honour and glory, and our eternal salvation at the last day, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most gracious God, who in the multitude of the late immoderate Rain and Showers, wast pleased at last to clear up the Heavens, and give us hopes of plenty yet to crown the Earth, we bless and praise thy glorious Name, humbly acknowledging, that as our sins most justly deserved thy wrath and indignation to be poured out upon us, and for our lakes upon the Earth, not onely in dearth and scarcity, but all other calamities; so it is thy mercy onely, and not our deservings, that thou hast thus again comforted and refreshed us. For which we humbly yeeld thee all thanks and glory; beseeching thee, that by our transgressions we may not anew enkindle thy displeasure, to dash our hopes in pieces, and recal thy mercies from us. Grant this, O merciful Father, for Iesus Christ his sake, our onely Lord and Saviour. Amen.

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy Commandments; and also that by thee, we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Iesus Christ our Saviour.
